

project update

Oxford Brookes University

Client -	Oxford Brookes University
Main Contractor -	Barnwood Shopfitting
Architect -	Roberts Limbrick
Services Value -	£1.5M

As a result of increased demand from the NHS, this state of the art teaching facility will significantly enhance the delivery of Oxford Brookes' current provision in Swindon and offers the potential for further growth and development.

The newly refurbished building contains a new library, high quality teaching spaces, skills labs, catering facilities and spaces to further support collaboration, research and support for students.

Axiom have been pleased to be involved with the installation of mechanical & electrical services in this building.
